

The Gathering Place is a non-profit community-based cancer center located in Cleveland Ohio that supports, educates, and empowers individuals and families coping with the impact of cancer through programs and services provided free of charge. We are seeking an energetic and engaging clinician to provide programs for children, teens and families coping with the impact of cancer in their lives. This part-time position involves a varied work schedule which includes evenings and weekends.

Key Responsibilities:

- Create and facilitate innovative, evidence-based programming for families, children and teens impacted by cancer
- Provide one-to-one and group clinical support
- Provide education to hospitals and other organizations related to children and family concerns around cancer
- Represent The Gathering Place in community outreach activities

The ideal candidate for this position will hold a degree and applicable professional licensure in Child Life (CCLS), Social Work (LSW/LISW), Clinical Counseling (LPC/LPCC), Art Therapy (ATR-BC/LPAT), Music Therapy (MT-BC/LPMT) or related field. A minimum of 2 years of clinical practice related to children and experience in oncology is preferred. Resumes may be submitted to Karen Hatfield, Chief Program Officer for The Gathering Place at hatfield@touchedbycancer.org
